PROGRAM NOTES

This short work imagines a lone figure in a desolate world. They are angered and frustrated by their predicament of loneliness, but in the end, they also wonder if there could possibly be anyone else out there enduring this same fate.

My sincerest thanks and appreciation goes to the members of Sputter Box for supporting artists during these incredibly difficult times, and for the opportunity to keep creating music for others.

TEXT

The wind is howling outdoors
The weather's frightening, of course
And I CAN'T GET ANY RELIEF!!

Yet, all I wonder now is if you're out there.

Are you out there?
Can you hear me?
Hear me?
Hear me?
